

Pay with PayPal. No need to set up a paypal account.

The image shows a screenshot of the PayPal Guest Checkout page. At the top, it displays the PayPal logo, the amount $640.00 USD, and the language set to English. Below this, there is a section for existing accounts with a 'Log In' button. The main heading is 'PayPal Guest Checkout' with a sub-note: 'We don't share your financial details with the merchant.' The page is divided into several sections: 'United States' (country selection), 'Card number' (with Visa, Mastercard, and American Express logos), 'Expires' (MM/YY) and 'CSC' (3 digits) fields, 'Billing address' (Street address, Apt., etc., bldg., City, State, Postal code), and 'Contact Information' (Mobile, Phone number, Email: m@dc.com). A 'Continue' button is at the bottom. Red annotations include: a shield icon with the text 'PayPal is the safer, easier way to pay'; a 'Log In' button with the text 'If you want to pay via a paypal account, click "Log In".'; a large red bracket on the right side of the card and address fields with the text 'Fill in your card information here'; a line pointing to the 'Log In' button with the text 'Usually PayPal shopping carts open to a page like this.'; a line pointing to the 'Log In' button with the text 'You do not need a PayPal account to pay. Simply fill in your credit or debit card information in the PayPal GUEST Checkout section.'; a line pointing to the 'Log In' button with the text 'Choose whether or not you want to set up a PayPal account here..'; and a line pointing to the 'Continue' button with the text 'Click Continue to finalize payment'.

Make a Credit card payment on PayPal without setting up a PayPal account.

Click on the "Pay Now Button" on the payment page. A new page will open in the browser window.

Business Name

The image shows a PayPal checkout page. On the left is a 'Your order summary' box containing a table with 'Descriptions' and 'Amount' columns. The table lists two items with 'XXXXXXX' as descriptions and a total amount of '$187.00'. Below the table, the 'Item total' is '$187.00' and 'Tax' is listed. A red circle highlights the 'Total Price' field. To the right is a 'Choose a way to pay' section. The top part, 'Pay with my PayPal account', is crossed out with a large red 'X'. Below it, there are fields for 'Email' and 'PayPal password', a 'Log in' button, and a link for 'Forgot email or password?'. A red circle highlights the link 'Pay with a debit or credit card, or PayPal Credit'. Below this link, there is a note: 'If you do not have a paypal account, click on the "Pay with a debit or credit card" link.'

Ignore the section that is titled "Pay with my PayPal account." Instead, look below the login window and click on the link that says "Pay with a debit or credit card, or with a PayPal credit." This will bring you to a new page where you can enter your payment information without setting up a PayPal account.

The image shows the 'Enter payment info' page on PayPal. At the top, there are three tabs: 'Debit or Prepaid Gift Card', 'Credit Card', and 'PayPal Credit Special Offer'. A red arrow points to the 'Debit or Prepaid Gift Card' tab with the text 'Choose debit or credit'. Below the tabs, there is a heading: 'The secure way to use your debit card online' and a sub-heading: '$0 liability on unauthorized PayPal transactions.' The form contains several fields: 'Debit or Prepaid gift card number', 'Payment types' (with logos for VISA, MasterCard, American Express, and Discover), 'Expiration date' (with 'mm' and 'yy' dropdowns), 'CSC' (with a 'What is this?' link), 'First name', 'Last name', 'Address line 1', 'Address line 2 (optional)', 'City/State' (with a dropdown arrow), and 'ZIP code'. A large red bracket on the left side of the form is labeled 'Enter payment info'.
